The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
2430 E Street Northwest
Washington, D.C.

My dear Dulles:

When recently in Milford, Delaware, visiting a retired Foreign Service Officer whom I have known for many years, I met his niece who is now employed in Germany by one of our intelligence agencies. She informed me that some time ago she had filed an application with the C.I.A. and that subsequently she had submitted a statement of availability. She informed me also that she has had top secret clearance for a number of years and that her present position is that of analyst. She is now in this country on leave from Germany and is hopeful that clearance procedures might possibly be accelerated sufficiently to enable her to learn, before she sails back to Germany about August 25, whether there is a likelihood that her services will be desired by C.I.A.

I was favorably impressed in talking to her but really know nothing about her work or her character. I do, however, know her uncle well.

My thought in bringing this matter to your attention is that you might find it possible to accelerate the speed of the administrative machinery to the point that [Redacted] hope, as above expressed, may be realized! If that is at all possible, I shall be very grateful.

Sincerely yours,

[Redacted]
